

Hoverally 2008 Auction

Henry Stanley has spent the majority of his life conducting auctions and selling just about anything. He is the third generation in a family of auctioneers. Henry's style is unique and refreshing, as well as very entertaining. If you were lucky enough to have attended last year's Hoverally auction, you saw first hand the talent and energy Henry has and puts into his vocation. Auctions can sometimes be uninteresting and tiresome. Henry not only makes the auction exciting, but also has turned it into a sport!

The auction helps raise money for the club and is made possible by the generous donations of its members. Plan now to attend and be a part of an event that promises to have you laughing and wanting more. This year's auction will be held in the Multi-Purpose building at the Ross Co. Fairgrounds. Check the event schedule for times.

Don't forget to bring items that you would like to donate to the club's auction. Oh yea, bring a lot of money too. Remember, it goes to the benefit of the club, which helps to promote your favorite sport and pastime. There are so many things that will make this year's Hoverally fun and exciting. Don't miss it!
